MESCALINA, the online Italian music magazine, by Aldo Pedron.

"A perfect mix of ballads, swing, jazz and blues of rare beauty"

At the age of 73, Paul Millns is still able to write wonderful songs, sing them divinely, play the piano well and still amaze us today.

THUERINGER ALLGEMEINE

"His songs – nothing spared or soothing, but pure life: honest, clear sounds with little decoration and much emotion.

Paul Millns not only plays music - he is music."

THE ONLY DANCE THAT MATTERS by Frank Becker

"that's what distinguishes the real star...often he is compared, names like Randy Newman, Joe Cocker or Tom Waits are in the room. But Millns is a class of his own as a poet and interpreter of his own songs.

The result is one of the most beautiful albums of its genre, and it has earned our distinction, with honesty.

A heartfelt recommendation."

"Paul Millns's music defies any categories and drawers, spanning earthy blues as much as ballads, soul, rock and jazz. In addition, Millns has one of the most expressive voices, in addition to great lyrics. What more could you want?"
